Risk planning for your family, your finances — and your future

Create and store your important documents using the Will & Legal Document Center

Creating a plan for you and your family includes preparing for the unexpected. Along with designating beneficiaries for your retirement accounts, it's a good idea to have legal documents in place to ensure your wishes for the future are carried out.

Take some time to make a plan for your assets, for the care of minor children, and plan who will make financial and medical decisions for you in the event you are unable to. Get started creating your plan today with the Will & Legal Document Center provided by ARAG.

Resources for help with legal documents

Having the proper documents in place can help ensure you're still in control in case something happens to you. With ARAG's free online resources, you and/or your spouse can create these documents:

- Will — Specify what happens to your property after you die, and appoint the person to execute your estate. You can also name a guardian for your minor children.
- Healthcare power of attorney — Grant someone permission to make medical decisions in case you're no longer able to make them yourself.
  - HIPAA authorization — Grant someone access to your protected health information and medical records.
- Durable power of attorney — Grant someone permission to make financial decisions for you.
- Living will — Let your family and health care providers know your wishes for medical treatment when you're unable to speak for yourself.
- Medical treatment authorization for minors — Grant consent for medical personnel to treat your child(ren) if you're away.

Plus, you can also access:

- Personal Information Organizer — Record your personal and financial information — as well as funeral arrangements — in one convenient spot.
- Estate planning education and tools — Get access to a variety of articles and online resources.
